A MESSAGE FROM YOUR MP

Over the summer, I've had the opportunity to spend more time across our community, meeting with residents, local organizations and businesses while hearing about the priorities that matter most to you. At the same time, I've continued working to advance priorities that are important to Canadians across the country, from affordability and housing to economic growth and support for seniors and families.

My goal has always been about bringing our community's voice to Ottawa while also making sure the opportunities and investments happening at the national level are felt right here at home. From supporting local infrastructure and community projects to advancing policies that create opportunity for families, workers, and businesses, I remain focused on delivering results in both our constituency and across Canada.

As we approach the first day back to Parliament, I'm looking forward to continuing this work and staying connected with our community and ensuring Vancouver Fraserview-South Burnaby remains a strong voice in shaping the future of our country.

SUPPORTING BUSINESSES IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

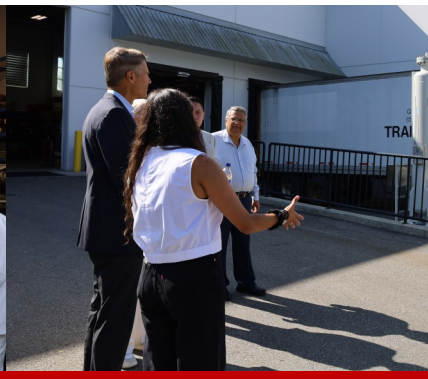

Last month we announced a PacifiCan investment of more than $30.5 million for dozens of businesses and organizations across the province, from North Vancouver to Comox to Kamloops. These investments will help businesses pivot to new pathways for growth, improve productivity, expand into new markets, and build more resilient supply chains. They will also help protect jobs in sectors most affected by global trade disruptions, including advanced manufacturing, forestry, and steel and aluminum.

This includes an investment of $3.6 million in Quadrogen in Burnaby, one of the many federal investments that will support skilled jobs, entrepreneurs, workers, and innovators across British Columbia.

As global trade pressures persist, the government is protecting Canadian workers and businesses, defending industries harmed by U.S. tariffs, and helping Canadian producers compete with U.S. products in the Canadian market. In August, our government announced a $7.5 billion package of new and enhanced measures for workers and businesses, including an additional $1.5 billion for the Regional Tariff Response Initiative (RTRI). B.C. businesses can now access expanded support through the Regional Tariff Response Initiative delivered through PacifiCan. To learn more about the RTRI, visit PacifiCan's website.

DELIVERING HOUSING RENTALS IN BURNABY

The federal government, along with the City of Burnaby and the Burnaby Housing Authority, announced nearly $92 million in combined funding to help build 183 secure, rental homes in Burnaby. This includes $84.5 million through the Apartment Construction Loan Program.

The homes consist of 58 two-bedroom and 125 three-bedroom units and are designed for families. The project is located right here at 6203 Marine Drive in the South Slope neighbourhood and will be situated near the Rosemary Brown Recreation Centre, schools, childcare, and other amenities.

This investment reflects the government's commitment to increasing housing supply, improving affordability, and helping build stronger, more resilient communities for generations to come.
